EXHIBITION - BETWEEN THE VINEYARDS LIVE THE BUTTERFLIES - HOSEIN JADDAD

During his residency in Sierre, at Château Mercier, the Moroccan artist Hosein Jaddad became interested in the topic of agriculture and its impact on the environment. Having the opportunity to participate in grape harvest with local winemakers, he decided to develop his artistic work around the vineyard landscape, how it is being exploited, as well as the problems faced by local producers. Through his work, the artist also chose to show the biodiversity surrounding the vineyards, and to reflect on its place in a region where wine producing is predominant.
