Exhibition « Montagne, entre sagesse et fragilités »

---

The SMART (Sustainable Mountain Art) program questions us through photography on the challenges facing the mountains today.

Since 2014, the look of photographers from elsewhere, who have been invited in residence to Switzerland for three months, has been focused on our environment and our society, with gentleness or revolt, to magnify, document, challenge or simply highlight the links that unite people with each other and with nature.

This collective exhibition allows us to discover, or rediscover, the points of view of

Juan Arias- Colombia

Tamir Bayarsaikhan - Mongolia

Lavonne Bosman - South Africa

Sharon Castellanos - Peru

Jorge Panchoaga - Colombia

Btihal Remli - Morocco

Jiehao Su - China

Lanqing Zhu, China.

An exhibition in partnership with the City of Sion.
