Exhibition - Sublime dread - Liz Tasa

During her three-month residency in Sierre, Peruvian photographer Liz Tasa freely pays tribute, through her work, to the abundant visions of Valais myths and legends. Liz Tasa's photographic universe is based on a mixture of fear and fascination produced by the sovereignty of nature. Lenient, beautiful and generous, she can also be frightening. Earthquakes, avalanches, landslides, cyclones.... embody the omnipotence of the elements when they break out. Through her photographs, Liz Tasa invites us to a « walk » in the heart of haughty and imposing scenery, on the scale of which we measure our smallness and vulnerability. On the borderline between materiality and fantasy, dreams and nightmares, these visions that touch the realm of the impalpable highlight our archaic fears, our superstitions and our dark areas.

Varnishing and Tales & legends evening

Thursday 21 November - 18:00

In order to nourish and sublimate Liz Tasa's work, a couple of Cuban-Swiss storytellers will come to breathe a mysterious atmosphere by telling legends of the mountain during the opening of the exhibition.
