VICTOR ZEA PRESENTS HIS EXHIBITION IN PERU

During his three months residency in Val Verzasca, Ticino, from mid-June to mid-September 2022, the Peruvian artist Victor Zea met different generations of women and men who decided to migrate to the mountains, in search of a lifestyle more in contact with nature to achieve their own inner balance. The mountains becomes synonymous with a path to one's own healing.

In his exhibition "Amalgama", presented during the Verzasca Foto Festival, everyone is "amalgamated" with the elements of nature. This stage in the valleys of Ticino is part of a personal journey consistently linked to what he has been able to learn in the mountains of his place of origin. He finds confirmation of the teaching of the Q'ero who remind us that "we are different expressions of the same unity".

His exhibition is to be discovered from August 18 to September 16 at Centro de la Imagen.
